Gregory Lamont

Mr. Lamont, a native of Springfield, Ohio, is an accomplished multi-talented keyboard artist. In addition to playing with Johnny Lytle's Quartet at the Jazz Workshop in San Francisco, he has played for twelve (12) years in Washington, D.C. on the FTV, Club, Blues Alley, and many other renowned sites. He recently participated in a tour of Paris and Rome with Barry Manilow. Mr. Lamont's uniqueness lies just in his close relationship to the melody of the song itself. His style is fluid and moving. His selections range from classics such as "Take the A Train" to more popular and modern songs such as "It Was a Very Good Year".

Mr. Lamont's social consciousness drives him doing many benefits for children and families. His visit to Somerset is based upon his special feelings for the work of the American Community Action Program.
